

KING EDWARD IS MUCH IMPROVED

England Feels Hopeful That the Nonarch Will Now Live.

THE CRISIS IS OVER

Physicians Say the Critical Period Is Now Passed Safely.

MUCH REJOICING

London, June 27.—It is now thought that if the King's condition continues favorable no regent will be necessary and the naval review may yet be held. The last official bulletin has created a most favorable impression in parliamentary circles.

Crisis Is Over
The opinion held by medical experts is that all danger from the septic process is ended. So far as can be seen, they say, the crisis in the King's condition may be regarded as over.

Less Anxiety
On the whole the King's condition is attended with less anxiety. A bulletin issued at 2 p. m. is of the same hopeful tone. It said: "His majesty passed a comfortable morning. All symptoms today are so far satisfactory. Temperature remains normal."

Had A Fair Night
The feeling of great anxiety that was caused by last night's bulletin on the King's condition was partly allayed this morning when the following bulletin was posted: "His majesty had a fair night with some settled sleep. His appetite is improved and the wound much more comfortable."

Irony of Fate
The irony of fate is being more and more realized by the people of London as the days of the King's illness continue. Today is the day when the King in a state procession was to have gone before his people. Whereas the people are coming to the home of the King to inquire anxiously about his condition.

Wait All Night
Few persons waited at the palace over night, but the dawn brought the renewal of the crowd in view of the hopefulness of the official bulletin. The tendency is to resume operations for the minor events planned for the coronation.

Late Bulletin
London, 6 P. M.—An official bulletin at six o'clock says: "The King has maintained the satisfactory condition described in the last bulletin. His majesty shows no disquieting symptoms."

Pray for the King.
The irony of fate ordained that the day named for the coronation should be an ideal one, even among the delights of an English June. The skies were clear and the heat of the sun was tempered by a cool, refreshing breeze. The weather gods, who are partially responsible for the king's undoing, seemed bent upon emphasizing the nation's disappointment. The millions who expected to acclaim a newly crowned monarch went instead to church to pray that his life be spared or made half-hearted holiday, wandering through the streets where his triumphal processions would have passed. They were even inclined to be joyful in the light of the ray of hope which came from the palace where the royal sufferer lay.

The first three bulletins sent out by the physicians yesterday were distinctly encouraging. It was announced that the patient's temperature was normal, and this was the best possible news in a case of this nature.

Nation Takes Heart.
All the other symptoms were also favorable. It was, therefore, not surprising that the nation took heart again, and was almost inclined to indulge in premature rejoicing. The throngs which still filled the streets sang and were gay. "The king will live," was heard on all sides, and they began to talk of a coronation in October.

Then the evening bulletin was posted at 11 o'clock on the palace gates, and in all the postoffices. It concluded with the disquieting sentence which checked the hopefulness: "There has been some return of pain in the wound."

These words would usually have serious significance in a situation like that of the king, and the doctors would have hardly employed them unless they desired the natural conclusion to be drawn from them. Fresh pain implies fresh inflammation. Renewed inflammation is usually accompanied or followed by a renewed secretion of pus.

May Reopen Wound.
This peril is one of extreme gravity. It might be decided to reopen the wound as a last resort. This has been done in many cases, and it is sometimes successful where the patient is strong, and in the full vigor of life. In the King's case it would be a desperate expedient.

The papers devote much space to incidents connected with London's subdued holiday amid the empty stands and barren display of coloring for what should have been the setting of the greatest spectacle in the crown's history. Many thousands of persons went around the intended route of the coronation procession once more, sorry, apparently, at leaving the dismantled ghosts of a great day, but found Piccadilly a wilderness of uprooted masts.

Decorations Ruined.
On the pavement of James street lay a great golden crown which had been the centerpiece of the most ambitious scheme of decoration attempted in any quarter of London. Around Westminster abbey were masses of timber and floral and decorative ruins. Finally the buses, which had been traversing the streets at trebled and sextupled fares, exhibited frequently notices that they would take passengers to Richmond, Hampton court or other summer holiday resorts. Thousands of people went to these places. The 6 o'clock bulletin, stating specifically that the patient's temperature was normal, gave the public the first real assurance that the king was better. More than forty-eight hours having passed since the operation was performed, it is felt even by medical men that the king now has a fighting chance. It is explained that the danger from fresh suppuration must continue for several days longer, but it is reasonable to believe that the healing process has begun and hope may be entertained that it will continue.

KING EDWARD'S ESCAPES

England's Ruler Has Been Near Death Eight Times

2. Upon returning to England in 1860 after his visit to the United States and Canada his voyage was so delayed by storms that warships were sent in search of the warship Hero.

3. In 1871 an attack of typhoid fever threatened to result fatally. His life was despaired of but was saved through vigorous nursing him with brandy.

4. In 1875 while tiger shooting in India a tiger sprang upon the prince's elephant. His life was saved by Colonel White of his suite, who killed the beast.

5. In 1898 he slipped and fell on a stairway, sustaining an accident to his knee which threatened to lame him for life. Within a few months he had completely recovered.

6. On April 4, 1901, while enroute to Copenhagen, was shot at by a half-crazed youth named Sipido at the Brussels railway station. Two shots were fired, both of which missed their mark.

7. While on a visit to the Emperor of Germany he was hunting stags and two of them charged upon his horse. The horse reared and threw him to the ground. He was only slightly bruised.

8. He missed death by just ten seconds when the mast of the yacht Shamrock fell before a squall during her trial trip on May 22, 1901.

COAL MINERS BREAK LOOSE

After Days of Quiet They Attack Two Non-Union Men

THE POLICE CALLED

Mob Was Composed of Forty Desperate Foreigners, Who Were Enraged.

OTHERWISE, QUIET

Wilkesbarre, Pa., June 27.—After several days of quiet a radical show of lawlessness was exhibited by a mob of forty foreign miners who attacked two non-union men.

Beaten Severely
The two men were set upon by the mob and before they could be rescued by the police were badly beaten and severely injured. The trouble started when the men were coming from work and nearly resulted in a general riot.

Situation Still the Same
The general situation still remains the same. Pickets are still watching the mines and the operators are just keeping working forces going to keep the mines free from water. Many of the new employees are college men who are working during the summer.

WISCONSIN MEN STRIKE RICH OIL

Badger Oil Company Has Plenty of Oil in Its Kentucky Property.

Madison, Wis., June 27.—Special.—M. L. French, manager of the Badger Oil & Gas Company, with Railroad Commissioner Graham L. Rice, started yesterday afternoon to look after the company's interests in the Kentucky oil fields. Four wells on the company's property have been carried down to the oil-sand, and the fifth is just being completed. All promise well, and the members of the company, most of whom are state officials and employees, are confident that they have a good thing. Other wells are contracted for and will be put down as fast as possible, and as soon as a pipe line is completed to the property the completed wells will be "brought in" and the property become a dividend payer.

The Pontiac (Ill.) syndicate, which owns 20,000 acres, is pushing the project. Previously constructed drainage canals in Laporte county have reclaimed hundreds of thousands of acres in this and adjoining counties.

JUST HOW THEY WON EAU CLAIRE

Story of the Republican County Convention Told by Eau Claire Paper.

The following article from the Eau Claire Leader explains the "rump" convention held by the LaFollette bolters in the county convention held there the other day. The meager reports that have been sent out from the seat of war have not told the story with half of the intensity that it deserves.

The article follows:
Eau Claire Leader: The half-breeds will make a cold-blooded attempt to steal the Eau Claire county delegation to Madison.

Their hand was fully exposed in an article, sent as an Eau Claire dispatch, and published in the Milwaukee Free Press.

Four or five hundred citizens attended the conventions of the First and Second assembly districts at the court house in this city on Saturday last. They witnessed the separate conventions of the First and Second assembly districts held regularly. The first assembly delegates convening in the probate court room. They witnessed the Second assembly district convention held regularly with Gus Dittmer, of Augusta, as chairman. Mr. Dittmer had the proxy of E. M. Bradford, the regular chairman, and acted for him.

All present witnessed the bolt of F. M. Miner, W. C. Donovan and others, in an effort to force the First and Second Assembly districts into joint-convention with D. B. Foster, of Fairchild, as chairman. The uproar created by the half-breed element was witnessed. The election of eighteen delegates by this joint convention was witnessed by all.

And now the half-breeds cause the following to be printed in their organ the Milwaukee Free Press: "The joint convention made no attempt to select the delegates to the state convention. The selections were made by the separate assembly district convention in compliance with the call of the state central committee for the state convention."

The half-breeds have the affront to claim black is white and depend on a favorable state central committee to back them up. They propose to brazen the thing through, notwithstanding the fact that they did not have an intelligible record of their so-called joint-convention. So great was the din and so mixed up were the motions offered by their leaders that the secretary of their convention candidly and frankly told the reporter practically that he did not have any records or names. He said he would fix up the names after he went home. It is no reflection on the secretary or no reflection is intended, when the Leader says that the secretary did not know "where he was at." It was beyond the pale of human possibility to keep a record of what was done in the half-breed joint convention.

But judging from the dispatch to the half breed organ, the records were duly doctored and doctored after the joint convention had adjourned and when the astute lawyers got straightened out behind closed doors and got their bearings.

After the smoke of the battle cleared away the half-breed leaders saw that their delegates were illegally chosen, and they have boldly faced up about doctoring their records to send to a state central committee that is favorably disposed toward them. They now claim that their delegates were elected in separate conventions.

YOUSSEFF IS THE BEST MAN

DEFEATS REINHOLD SCHOTT

Interesting Meet of the Interurban Athletic Club Held Last Night.

Last night the Interurban Athletic Association gave its initial athletic carnival at the Myers Grand to a fairly well filled house of men exclusively.

The exhibition consisted of a six-round boxing contest between Harry Wainwright of Milwaukee and "Kid" Ferris of St. Paul, a couple of Fourth raters, and a wrestling match between Hesse Yousseff, the "Terrible Turk" and Reinhold Schott of Watertown, Wis.

The sparring contest was held under the Police Gazette rules, which allowed hitting in the breakaway and was for points. The same rules governed the wrestling match, the conditions being that Yousseff was to throw Schott three times in one hour catch-as-catch-can, no holds barred. In order to win, if Schott succeeded in throwing the Turk once in the hour he won. Colin C. MacLean acted as master of ceremonies and Fred Anderson as referee.

It was shortly after nine o'clock when the boxers made their appearance. William Mason looked after Wainwright and E. Ray Lloyd after "Kid" Ferris. Wainwright was much heavier and taller than Ferris, but that did not make much difference as neither of them hit hard enough to keep the other warm. They spent most of their time during the six-rounds clinching and side-stepping although a few warm ones were handed out to keep the audience good natured.

Fight A Draw
At the close of the bout Referee Anderson declared the round a draw although a great many in the audience thought that "Kid" Ferris should be given the decision.

The wrestling bout was one of the best ever pulled off in Janesville. Schott demonstrated to the public that he is one of the best men for his weight that ever appeared before a Janesville audience. The way in which he eluded his giant antagonist and broke any number of bad holds, showed him to be a bunch of muscles and up in all the tricks of the game.

Schott A Favorite
Schott was the first to make his appearance on the stage and looked in first-class condition. He was closely followed by Yousseff and the difference in their weight and size was at once apparent. From the appearance of the two men it looked foolhardy on Schott's part to tackle so large a man.

Weights Given
Mr. MacLean announced that Schott weighed 149 1/2 pounds and Yousseff 207. The Turk was an unpleasant looking fellow and the sympathy of the audience was all with Schott. Yousseff is a fine specimen of physical development with powerful arms and legs and an immense pair of shoulders.

First Fall
During the first fall Schott played on the defensive and kept away from the Turk's numerous lunges and tries for a hold. Finally after about five minutes the men went to the mat and after considerable hard work on the part of Schott he succeeded in breaking the Turk's hold and regaining his feet. The second down was in eight minutes and break followed two minutes later. Finally the Turk got a hammer lock on Schott and won the first fall in 13:10.

Fall Number 2
The second fall was a repetition of the first Schott going down twice but managing to break away both times. The third time the Turk got a full Nelson on Schott and won the fall in 13:50.

The third fall was a hard fought contest Schott playing for time. He kept the big fellow following him all over the mat. Finally the Turk caught Schott and brought him to the mat. He secured a half Nelson on Schott, who succeeded in slipping it and by a clever flop landed on top of the Turk. Here the disparity in size and strength showed. Schott was unable to do anything with his giant antagonist and the Turk soon had him back on the floor. Yousseff made several attempts to get a hold on Schott, who managed to slip them all. Finally he secured a half Nelson and won the fall in 25:12. The entire bout lasted for 55 minutes and 12 seconds, the Turk getting the three falls inside the hour with some minutes to spare.

The Origin of Cyclones.

We object to the expression, "When winds are blowing in opposite directions, near the place where the volume of air rises, we may have whirlwind or cyclone." It was an old observation that eddies of water are formed between currents moving in opposite directions or between a swift current and a body of quiet water. Having once been formed the eddies move away and are soon broken up by friction and irregular motions. Analogous to these are the eddies of wind and dust blowing around the corner of a building; but the whirlwinds of meteorology, viz., the water spouts, tornadoes, hurricanes, and typhoons involve a different principle. These may form between winds blowing in opposite directions, but the logical mechanics is, first, an indraught of air toward the center, producing gentle winds, then, the deflection of the winds by the rotation of the earth, producing strong whirls. So far as two direct indraughts is concerned it can only produce winds, blowing from all sides straight to the center, where they might possibly rise up and flow back upon themselves so that each particle of air might move in a nearly vertical plane. The irregularities of the earth's surface, or inequalities of friction, or temperature, or moisture, may induce horizontal whirls in connection with the vertical motion, but they will be as often to the right as to the left. It is to the credit of Ferrel that he demonstrated that our whirlwinds actually owe their direction of whirl wholly to the rotation of the earth on its axis and he especially opposed the idea that whirlwinds are formed as a consequence of, or between winds blowing in opposite directions. It is perfectly true that when we have a whirlwind the air is moving in nearly opposite directions on opposite sides of the storm center; therefore, when the weather map shows us spirally-incurring winds on the opposite sides of an area of low pressure, we may think of these opposing winds as constituting a cyclonic whirl, or whirlwind, but not as causing it. About 1890 Professor Hann showed that in some storms there is often an absence of buoyancy in the cloud region, and that, therefore, we must look elsewhere for the force that maintains the whirlwinds. There is, therefore, a tendency to allow that the general currents of the atmosphere must contribute their surplus energy to the maintenance of hurricanes and cyclones. However this may be, the initial whirl is, we suppose, always due to the systematic deflection of inblowing winds by the diurnal rotation of the earth. Further explanation by Prof. Cleveland Abbe, in Monthly Weather Review, March, 1902.

IMPROVEMENTS AT ST. MARY'S CHURCH

Work of Beautifying the Interior Still Being Carried on by Competent Hands

Since its dedication the work of completing St. Mary's church has gone rapidly on. An innovation has been introduced in connection with the lighting of the altars.

In addition to the candles which will be used as is always customary, a large number of tiny incandescent bulbs have been placed here and there on the arches and elsewhere.

One Half Candle Power

These lights are about one-half candle power. On the main altar there are thirty-seven of them and nineteen on each of the side altars. The effect when lighted is very much the same as that of the candles and probably cannot be distinguished from them when the large candles which are arranged in the forward part of the altars are burning.

Other Improvements

A telephone has also been placed in the sacristy and a second receiver on the organ in the choir loft at the rear of the church. It is for the use of the pastor in communicating with the organist or the director of the choir at the other end of the building.

Pews Completed

Throughout the church the pews have been finished with a furniture varnish which clearly brings out the grain of the wood, leaving it of its natural color. The priests' bench has also undergone a coat of varnish and has also been touched up with gilt.

The altar's statues are being re-decorated throughout. This work is being done by E. Pendergast, of Duquesne, who has been here employed on the building for three weeks past, but will return to his home next week.

Father Goebel Away

Father Goebel left on Tuesday noon for Marietta, Ohio, where he is to speak at the commencement exercises of the college in that place. Marietta is Father Goebel's early home and he always has felt a special interest in the college. On Saturday he will return to Janesville.

OUTLOOK IS GREAT FOR TOBACCO CROP

RECENT RAINS DO MUCH GOOD

Leaf Growers and Buyers Encouraged Over Prevailing Field and Market Conditions.

Farmers have been particularly busy during the last two weeks transplanting the new tobacco crop, which is now about all in. For the balance of the season they will put in their spare time tending the growing crop and speculating on the probabilities of its being ruined, by hail, or some of the other numerous disasters which are liable to strike it.

So far the crop bids fair to be one of the best raised in years. The plants were strong and healthy and the numerous rains have put the ground in the best possible condition for a rapid growth. The rain of yesterday was a great help to the plants which were planted late. Albert Schneck and Charles T. Heddies have their cloth coverings for growing shade tobacco completed and have a good crop of Sumatra well under way. The cost for equipping a field for this sort of an experiment is considerable but the growers expect that the results will more than offset the extra expense.

But little remains of last season's crop and the sales are few and far between. The occasional lot is bought at prices ranging from 8 to 10 cents. The growing districts are about as closely cleaned up in case goods as the average of other years. In cured goods the market continues remarkably quiet. In the general leaf market in the East, the prevailing activity is even above expectations. That the biggest cigar combination has come into the open market and bought a couple of hundred boxes of forced sweated Connecticut leaf, shows the pinching scarcity of domestic wrapper leaf for the little cigar output, which is increasing marvelously. One of the large New York factories is negotiating for the purchase of the balance of one of the best packings of 1900 Wisconsin, which will clear up the market, most of the available binder stock. Sumatra is moving fairly well and there is little prospect that the present stock will be inordinately increased through further purchases at the coming inscriptions.

The Havana market is enjoying continued activity. With some houses the past month was not only the most active of the current year, but also a record breaker for many years. The only complaint is about the price. But these same houses seem to forget that it is the reasonable prices that are stimulating a larger consumption.

There was quite a little animation in the Ohio market during the week, caused by the purchase of about all the remaining leaf by a couple of Eastern packing houses, which evidently have come to the conclusion that any tobacco will be better than none if the predictions of a general shortage in the fall are verified. As a result of this buying prices jumped back to the same old 10 cent standard and it is even reported that for exceptional lots 11 cents were paid, but the well-known scarcity, if not actual absence, of unpurchased high-grade leaf here leaves the rumor open to doubt. Transplanting is still going on, though even that work has been largely completed and the waiting period will soon be upon us.

There were no sales of tobacco in the Connecticut valley during the week and there is little likelihood of any taking place in the immediate future, as those growers who still hold tobacco are determined not to part with it until after the sweat, by which time they expect that the demand for cigar leaf will be so much greater than the visible supply that prices will amply compensate them for their labor and patience. Transplanting is still progressing and set out plants are doing finely. The use of transplanting machines has greatly accelerated the work and will be even more general this year, as it has been noticed that not only no these devices perform the work quicker than is possible by hand but also that the machine set plants seem to thrive better and with a smaller percentage of loss.

Milwaukee leaf jobbers report that business during the week has been fair and running in the ordinary way with no special sign of improvement. Collections are pretty slow all around. Manufacturers have nothing new to report, their business being satisfactory, and all hands being fairly busy. The retail trade is in good shape with goods moving well.

No changes of consequence to note in the tobacco trade of St. Louis. Leaf dealers all report a fair trade for this season of the year, and the travelling men on the road are booking some pretty good orders for future delivery, especially from those manufacturers who keep posted on the market and who know that better selections in old tobaccos can be made now than later on.

A six weeks' drought around Lancaster, Pa., which had the growers on the verge of despair, was broken last Saturday. During the next three days they had almost three inches of rainfall which made everyone happy. The growers now feel that they have a starter for a first class crop.

CUBAN TREATY HELD IN RESERVE

Reciprocity Pact to Wait for Sentiment to Develop in Its Favor.

PUBLIC WILL DEMAND ACTION

President Roosevelt Believes the Next Session of Congress Will Be Compelled to Ratify the Compact or Pass the Spooner Bill.

Washington, June 27.—A Cuban reciprocity treaty was practically completed at the state department by Assistant Secretary of State Hill and Mr. Quesada, the Cuban minister. It is being prepared to be held in reserve for an emergency and not for the purpose of sending it to congress this session, or to be used as the text for an extra session of congress. No difficulty was experienced by the representatives of the two governments in finding a common ground from which the negotiations could proceed. Mr. Quesada was desirous of putting into formal shape the terms that this government suggested, and while the finishing touches were not given, the paper is in such shape that another meeting will dispose of it.

It is the present intention of the president to hold it until next session of congress. Should public sentiment develop this fall during the congressional elections sufficiently strong in favor of Cuban reciprocity to cause some of its opponents to join its advocates and encourage the hope that a new treaty could be ratified, then it will be submitted to the senate for action. It is believed by the friends of Cuban reciprocity that within the next six months their strength will be materially increased, and that when congress returns in December either the Spooner bill will be passed or a treaty ratified.

CANAL BILL PASSES.

Conferees Agree and Both Houses Adopt the Report.

Washington, June 27.—There is no longer any obstacle in the way of the construction of an isthmian canal, both branches of congress having ratified the agreement of the conferees on the canal bill, which will be laid before President Roosevelt for his approval. The house adopted the conference report by the almost unanimous vote of 252 to 8, while in the senate there was no roll call upon this proposition.

The bill, as it becomes a law, directs the President to construct a canal by the Panama route if a clear title can be obtained and concessions can be secured for the control of a strip of territory from Colombia. Otherwise the Nicaraguan route will be selected. The bill authorizes the President to acquire at a cost not exceeding $10,000,000 all rights, privileges, franchises, and concessions owned by the Panama canal company on the isthmus of Panama, including the capital stock of the Panama railroad company.

It appropriates $10,000,000 to become available immediately, and if the Panama route is selected, contracts aggregating an additional $135,000,000 are provided for, but if the Nicaraguan route is agreed upon contracts aggregating $180,000,000 are authorized. It also authorizes the secretary of the treasury to sell bonds to the amount of $130,000,000, the proceeds to be used for the construction of the canal.

HISS LITTLEFIELD.

Democrats Resent Statement that Schley Was Cowardly.

Washington, June 27.—Loud hisses on the Democratic side followed an assertion by Representative Littlefield of Maine in the house that Admiral Schley was cowardly during the battle of Santiago. The dullness in congress during the final consideration of the Philippine bill was enlivened by Champ Clark of Missouri in a humorous speech in reply to Mr. Lands of Indiana. His wit and satire quickly filled most of the seats upon the floor, and the members thoroughly enjoyed his remarks. He grew serious in refuting the charges that the Democrats had turned their backs and run away from the Philippine question, and briefly reviewed the record of his party in refutation.

Mr. Littlefield replied. Mr. Clark had mentioned Dewey, Schley, Gen. Joe Wheeler, Hobson and several other heroes of the Spanish war to emphasize his statement that the Democrats had gotten as much glory out of it as the Republicans, had fought as bravely and had brought as much glory to their country's flag. When Mr. Littlefield reached that part of Mr. Clark's speech he referred disparagingly of Schley, and the hisses followed.

HAS WALLER RECORD.

Court-Martial Proceedings Now in Hands of Secretary of War.

Washington, June 27.—The record of the court-martial proceedings in the case of Major L. W. T. Waller of the marine corps, who was acquitted of the charge of illegally killing Filipino prisoners in Samar, was received at the War Department. It will be considered by Secretary Root in connection with his review of the testimony and findings of the court-martial which acquitted him, but the Smith case is still subject to the action of the President. Judge Advocate General Davis is now preparing the case for his action. It is generally understood that the court found that the charges against General Smith were not sustained and acquitted him. Owing to the prominence of the case and the attention it has received in Congress in the debates on the Philippine bill, the action of the President in the matter is awaited with more than ordinary interest. The impression prevails that he will improve the opportunity to express his ideas on the subject of the conduct of military affairs in the Philippines.

Ayme at Washington.

Washington, June 27.—United States Consul Ayme, in company with Professor Hill, called by appointment upon Acting Secretary of State Hill and spent two hours in reciting the tragic event at Martinique connected with the volcano outbreak. It is specifically stated that he had no complaint to make in connection with the distribution of the United States stores by the island authorities.

Kratz Is Not Affected.

Washington, June 27.—It is learned that the additional article to the Mexican extradition treaty, including bribery in the list of extraditable offenses, which was signed in Mexico, will not operate against Charles Kratz, late alderman of St. Louis, charged with having accepted a bribe.

MASKED MEN GAG A WOMAN

Robbers Disappointed in the Amount of Loot They Secured.

Goshen, Ind., June 27.—Mrs. William Latta, aged 55 years, living alone on a farm on Haw Patch, four miles north of Ligonier in Noble county, was bound and gagged by four masked men who had forced an entrance to her house. Three searched the house while the fourth stood guard. They secured a gold watch, but less than $10 in money. They believed a large sum of money was secreted in the house, but could not make Mrs. Latta admit it.

Toy Cannon.

Green Bay, Wis., June 27.—John Trich, aged 15, was shot in the abdomen by a toy cannon. His recovery is doubtful. He loaded the cannon with a rifle ball and lighted the fuse. There was no explosion and the boy thought it was not going to go off. He stepped before the cannon just as the load was discharged.

Mayor Is Fined.

NOMINATE BLISS ON FIRST BALLOT

All Opposition Is Squelched and Governor Is Named with a Rush.

FULL SLATE GOES THROUGH

Resolutions Laud the Protective Tariff, Censure Attacks Upon the Soldiers in the Philippines and Pledge Support to President Roosevelt.

Governor—A. T. Bliss. Lieutenant Governor—Alex. Maitland. Secretary of State—Fred M. Warner. Treasurer—Daniel McCoy. Auditor—Perry F. Powers. Attorney General—Charles A. Blair. Land Commissioner—Edwin A. Wilder. Superintendent of Public Instruction—Delos A. Fall. State Board of Education—Luther L. Wright, Patrick H. Kelly.

Detroit, June 27.—All opposition to Gov. Bliss disappeared before the Republican state convention came to order and the slate went through with a rush.

Capt. Allen of Portland nominated Gov. Bliss. Judge McAlvey of Muskegon made a good speech for Justus S. Stearns. Grant Fellows of Hudson nominated G. B. Horton. The delegates wanted to get right down to business and a ballot was taken, resulting as follows: Bliss, 811; Stearns, 214; Horton, 40; Patton, 22; Gilchrist, 3.

Congressman William Alden Smith was chairman of the convention and his speech was listened to with close and careful attention while he was discussing national issues. Frequent endorsement was given by cheers, but the convention did not reach its greatest enthusiasm until near the close of his address, when the congressman launched into an eloquent defense of the Philippine policy of the Republican party.

Bliss Men on Top.

Before the ballot was taken for governor an effort was made by the Stearns men to have a secret vote taken, but it was defeated by a vote of 771 to 316. After that, the Bliss men had everything their own way. G. J. Diekmann of Ottawa had no opposition for chairman of the state central committee.

The resolutions, as reported and adopted, declare:

"We cordially approve of the record of Michigan's senators and representatives in congress on matters pertaining to the advancement of the country's welfare, and in the fulfillment of our party's pledges, and, we especially desire to note our appreciation of their zealous and able work in behalf of Michigan's important industries, and to thank them for the services rendered.

BOARD OF REVIEW.

City of Janesville.

Public notice is hereby given that the Board of Review of said city of Janesville will meet on the 30th day of June, 1902, at nine o'clock a. m., for the purpose of reviewing and examining the assessment roll of real and personal property in said city, and sworn statements and valuations of real and personal property therein and of bank stock, and of correcting all errors in said roll, either in the description of property or otherwise.

A. E. BADGER, City Clerk.

Dated Janesville, Wis., June 19, 1902.

AN ORDINANCE for the protection of public parks and grounds.

The Mayor and Common Council of the City of Janesville, do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1. No person shall cut, break, or in any way injure or deface any tree, shrub, plant, flower, turf, or in any way injure, soil or deface any public property in any public park, square or ground in the city of Janesville, without lawful permission so to do.

SECTION 2. Any person violating any of the provisions of this ordinance shall pay a penalty of not less than three dollars nor more than fifty dollars.

SECTION 3. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication, which publication shall be for three consecutive days.

Passed June 26th, 1902.

APPROVED: VICTOR P. RICHARDSON, Mayor.

A. E. BADGER, City Clerk

disgraceful attacks upon the defenders and upholders of our flag in the Philippines, and we pledge faithful support to the government in the efforts to establish good government and personal liberty in those islands."

Other resolutions express sorrow for the deaths of William McKinley and ex-Gov. Pingree; pledge support to President Roosevelt, congratulate the president and congress upon the successful establishment of the Cuban republic, reaffirm the Republican platform adopted at Philadelphia in 1900, endorse the administration of Gov. Bliss and approve the efforts of President Roosevelt to "enforce the laws against illegal combinations in restraint of trade."

The fact that the resolutions, while generally commending the work of the Michigan congressmen and senators on behalf of Michigan industries, without attempting to say anything about beet sugar in particular, was freely commented upon, showing that the delegates had heard from the Michigan delegates at Washington, and did not want to interfere in their fight with the president.

THE MAN IN ARMOR

Was no match for the microbe. Giants he might slay but this microscopic organism defied him, and in many a campaign more men were destroyed by camp diseases than by the enemy's sword.

The one way to arm against microbe disease is to keep the blood pure. Impure blood both breeds and feeds disease.

The signs of impure blood are easy to read. Pimples, boils, and eruptions generally proclaim the blood to be impure. Scrofulous sores and swellings, salt-rheum, eczema, etc., are other signs of a corrupt condition of the blood.

Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery purifies the blood and cures diseases caused by the blood's impurity. It cures scrofulous sores, boils, pimples, eczema and other defiling and disfiguring diseases.

"It gives me great pleasure to express my faith in the virtue of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery," writes Mr. Ezekiel Floro, of Graytown, Ottawa Co., Ohio. "I suffered everything for two years with humor on my face, which baffled the skill of some of the most noted physicians. Was at once advised to go to the hospital; was doctored there for three months without success. Came home discouraged. Then began to doctor with a chemist. He also failed to help me. Then I began Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, with no faith whatever in it. Did it only to please my wife; but I am happy to tell you that after taking five bottles I am entirely cured."

FREE. Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the book in paper covers, or 31 stamps for the cloth-bound volume. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

CATARRH

The treatment of Catarrh with antiseptic and astringent washes, lotions, salves, medicated tobacco and cigarettes or any external or local application, is just as senseless as would be kindling a fire on top of the pot to make it boil. True, these give temporary relief, but the cavities and passages of the head and the bronchial tubes soon fill up again with mucus.

Taking cold is the first step towards Catarrh, for it checks perspiration, and the poisonous acids and vapors which should pass off through the skin, are thrown back upon the mucous membrane or inner skin, producing inflammation and excessive flow of mucus, much of which is absorbed into the blood, and through the circulation reaches every part of the system, involving the Stomach, Kidneys and other parts of the body. When the disease assumes the dry form, the breath becomes exceedingly foul, blinding headaches are frequent, the eyes red, hearing affected and a constant ringing in the ears. No remedy that does not reach the polluted blood can cure Catarrh. S. S. S. expels from the circulation all offensive matter, and when rich, pure blood is again coursing through the body the mucous membranes become healthy and the skin active, all the disagreeable, painful symptoms disappear, and a permanent, thorough cure is effected.

S. S. S. being a strictly vegetable blood purifier does not derange the Stomach and digestion, but the appetite and general health rapidly improve under its tonic effects. Write us about your case and get the best medical advice free. Book on blood and skin diseases sent on application.

DYNAMITE IS USED ON FACTORY SAFE

BUNGLING JOB OF AMATEURS

Attempted Burglary at Gray's Bottling Works Proves a Failure—
Small Damage Done.

Robbers attempted to blow open the safe in the office of the Gray Bottling works on Locust street last night but were evidently scared away before they could complete their job, and secured nothing.

From the appearances of the work it would look to be the attempt of beginners as they went at the safe in a bungling way and while they used dynamite they attacked the handle instead of the combination of the door where a professional starts his work.

The attempt was not discovered until this morning when Mr. Gray went to the factory. He found the office in a litter, the safe moved from its usual position and badly banged up. The door had been partially pried open and the handle blown off. The center tumbler that controls the combination had been "hammered down and ruined."

Came Through Door
Further investigation showed that the robbers had entered the office through a side door that is always open and had secured their implements from R. A. Myers, blacksmith shop, eight blocks away, a wrench and two chisels being missed there this morning. Evidently the aspirants for state prison honors had first tried to pry the door from its hinges and had then tried dynamite.

Used Dynamite
A small hole had been made near the handle and from the presence of several horse blankets in the office it is thought that they had been used to muffle the sound. The only damage done was to blacken the front of the safe and injure a rolling top desk that stood next to it. Some plaster was found scattered on the floor but no place could be found where it had been jarred from.

About 2 A. M.
The attempt was probably made about two o'clock as two persons living in the vicinity heard what they thought was a slight explosion about that time, but as there is more or less popping of bottles at the factory they did not pay much attention to it.

Little Money in Safe
The time of the year, just before the Fourth, would usually have been a good one for thieves as Mr. Gray makes large sales at this season and had just returned from a trip through the country. As it happened, however, he had placed all his collections in the bank yesterday afternoon except some ten or twelve dollars, so they would not have gotten much had they succeeded in opening the doors.

Familiar With Shop
The whole manner in which the work was done is such that it is thought that some one familiar with the workings of the shop planned the job. The doors and windows are never closed at night in order to ventilate the shop, and the door the robbers entered by is on the side of the building next to Mr. Gray's home. It was a bungle throughout for had the thieves been experts they would soon have forced the door open.

DR. RICHARDS WILL REMAIN

Error Was Made in Announcing His Removal to Beloit.

Former sheriff, W. H. Appleby, moved his household goods overland to Beloit, his future home, yesterday. The fact that he has been residing in the house next door to Dr. F. T. Richards, together with the fact that Dr. Richards has recently moved his office to pleasant quarters, in the suite with Dr. Jas. Mills, led to the incorrect statement that the popular dentist was moving his family to Beloit. The many friends of both Dr. and Mrs. Richards will be delighted to learn that this was a mistake, for during their residence in this city, they have taken an active interest in the community and have won a prominent place in social and musical circles. In addition to this, Dr. Richards has been very successful professionally and his patrons will be pleased to know he intends to remain in Janesville.

GAVE PRACTICAL MISSIONARY TALK

ABLE ADDRESS BY REV. PRICE

Milwaukee Divine Shows That Missions Pay from Every Point of View.

Rev. S. E. Price, pastor of the Tabernacle Baptist church of Milwaukee, gave an interesting and unique missionary address at the prayer service of the Baptist church last evening.

"Do Missions Pay?" was the subject chosen for the address which was a practical talk from its introduction to the close. Rev. Price said that he rejoiced that this was a practical age when men ask regarding every project whether it pays. The church of Christ is not true to its mission if it is investing money in a project which does not pay. Whether anything pays or not depends of course, largely on the view taken of values. Too often the estimate is merely commercial but Christians should take into consideration moral character, manhood and womanhood as a part of value.

Does Weather Affect Trade?
Merchants Talk of Trade and the Weather, and Fail to Agree on the Subject.

Does the inclement weather effect the sales of Janesville merchants. Opinions differ. Some claim that the trade continues as usual and others say that it has dropped off. From hot to cold and back again with little quips and quarks has been the prevailing schedule of the royal keeper of the weather for some time past. The majority of the merchants do not like it. They want warm weather and the druggists want soda water weather.

Druggists have one continuous plaint to make. "Nothing doing," is the word of all. It is too cold for soda water and too warm for one minute cold cures and quinine specifics. There is a considerable amount of illness, however, that keeps the run of prescriptions about at its standard.

Shoe Men
Shoe repairers bewail the cold weather. "People wear their old shoes on a rainy day," is the statement of one. Another, however, gives the opposite testimony. In regard to the retail shoe trade, and says that nothing better could be asked for. On one or two occasions such as Thursday morning when the sky was especially dubious in promise for the day, the number of customers fell off in a marked degree.

Book Men Talk.
Stationers say that for over a week trade in that direction has been extremely slow and pray for a return of fair weather.

Dry Goods Steady
The dry goods and clothing stores state that in their line the sky has had no effect. Visitors in their stores have come just as freely and purchased as well as at any time. One explanation advanced is that when the warmer days do come they will come in such quantities that it will be impossible to secure warm weather clothing fast enough and buyers are coming early to avoid the rush. This is one conjecture.

Insomnia

Nerve-racked, weary and heavy-eyed, the head that seeks repose finds only ceaseless tossing and feverish unrest. Strange fancies—vague forebodings—fill the mind, with harrowing thoughts until morning brings its tamping headache, irritable temper, and loss of appetite. Rest the nerves—build them up—and gentle, restful, refreshing sleep will be yours.

"My greatest trouble was sleeplessness. I was nervous and restless, and would toss and roll for hours. Had no ambition and had to abandon business. One bottle of Dr. Miles' Nervine put me on my feet again."
SIMON A. GIBSON, Georgetown, Ill.

Dr. Miles' Nervine
gives that sweet sleep so grateful to body and mind.
Sold by druggists on guarantee.

The News From County Towns.

MILTON.

Milton, June 26.—Yesterday was the great day of the year at Milton, it being Commencement Day at Milton college and alumni and former students from far and near gathered in large numbers to participate in the pleasure incident to the occasion. The exercises were held in a large audience tent on the college campus, with seats for a thousand persons making an ideal meeting place, the soft springy turf affording ingress and egress to those who came or went without disturbing the speakers. A stage was erected on which was seated the faculty, trustees, clergy, graduating class and visiting friends. Despite the unfavorable weather, which prevented many from out of town driving in and caused a large number in the village to remain at home, there was a large audience present when acting President Shaw called to order and the following program was presented.

The strengthening and tonic properties of grapes are well-known; when crushed and blended with nature's health-giving herbs their digestive and restorative qualities are incomparably effective in generating blood, increasing flesh and building up the weakened condition of the stomach, liver and kidneys of men, women and children. JOHN P. HOPKINS IS
STATE CHAIRMAN

Democratic Committee Elects Him
Over Jackson R. Pearce By Vote of 25 to 7.

Chicago, June 27.—John P. Hopkins had no trouble in securing the chairmanship of the Democratic state committee, yesterday.

Out of thirty-two votes cast he received twenty-five, Jackson R. Pearce of Quincy got the other seven. Mr. Hopkins himself cast his vote for Mr. Pearce.

Frank J. Quinn of Peoria nominated Mr. Hopkins, and City Attorney John E. Owens presented the name of Mr. Pearce. T. J. McNally, Robert E. Burke, R. J. Farrell, and John E. Owens of Chicago, J. W. Lusk, of Monmouth, and J. F. Robbins of Virginia voted for Pearce.

On assuming the chairmanship Mr. Hopkins said he would do his best to justify the confidence imposed in him; that he would work to build up the party and manage its affairs without regard to factions.

"It will always be my aim," he said, "to promote Democratic interests and elect Democrats to office."

No attempt was made to appoint the standing committees. The chairman declared that every member who can give any time to campaign work will have to go on the executive committee. There was some talk of increasing the size of this body from fifteen to twenty-one members, so as to insure a working majority at all meetings.

The other officers elected were: Secretary—W. L. Mounts of Carlinville.

Treasurer—Wm. B. Brinton of La Salle.
